It has been a while since my last newsletter I feel as if I have been hibernating away but really just been filling up my days with Amy and getting on with my work.

The new range is still coming along and I am looking forward to the big release so stay tuned...

Amy is nearly nine months and is crawling and inquisitive all day long! Here she is showing off for the camera

Have a great month, stay warm and keep those flu bugs at bay!

Ka kite Tina
